9.2.2022 - npr.org

Pope Benedict XVI apologizes for handling of sexual abuse cases but denies wrongdoing

...

POGGIOLI: Christian Weisner of the We Are Church Movement in Germany says German Catholics and bishops are disappointed with Benedict's letter.

CHRISTIAN WEISNER: This letter destroyed his reputation as a person, as a theologian and as head of a church.

POGGIOLI: Especially, Weisner says, because Benedict did not express a word of empathy for the victims.

https://text.npr.org/1079655013

Zuletzt geändert am 10.02.2022