

"Pope's reform process has already changed our Church"

Pope Francis' reform process has already changed our Church, We are Church International says after observing and accompanying the first half of the 2023 Synod in Rome.

WAC says: "The presence of voting members who are not bishops, half of them women, changed the climate fundamentally as well as the round tables that visualise a new type of non-hierarchical communication inside the church.

...

<https://www.indcatholicnews.com/news/48296>

Zuletzt geändert am 25.10.2023